1. The Commandature de Marine or Marine Militaire has its headquarters at Mangalia. A unit of this command has its headquarters at Constanta. 25X1
2. The USSR has a Land and Sea Forces Command at Constanta which comprises a small number of military personnel. This group is used for guarding Soviet installations. The Command headquarters is located in the Carlton Hotel on the corner of Carol and Ferdina Boulevards. 25X1
3. A training center for draftees is located about three kilometers from the port of Galati. There is a naval school at the training center but the cadet school is in Constanta, at the west end, about 1 1/2 kilometers from the port. Noncommissioned officers are selected from the draftees and undergo training for three to four months at the training center before being assigned to different branches of the service. 25X1
4. Before being called into service, draftees are examined by a committee which determines the branch of service to which each individual will report. After this examination, a note is sent to each draftee stating the branch to which assigned, the place and date of induction. Each year 2,000 to 3,000 draftees report for service. 25X1
